HOUSE COMMITTEE PROPOSES THREE-CENT LETTER POSTAGE

Another Burden May Be Added to the High Cost of Living

INCOME TAX MINIMUM CUT

In a new and unexpected way people may feel the effects of the high cost of living in war times. This is in increased postage. The sub-committee of the house committee on ways and means at Washington, in considering methods for raising money sufficient for government purposes, has practically decided upon advances.

The proposal is to leave the parcel post rates unchanged, but to double the rates for newspapers and periodicals and to advance the first class rate, the letter postage rates, from two to three cents per ounce or fraction thereof.

By a newly outlined policy men of ordinary means will be caught by the income tax, schedules for which are being altered. The taxable minimum for single men will be reduced to $1,000. The committee is undecided yet where to set the minimum for married men, some favoring $1,500 and others $2,000. This rate will not be higher than one per cent. per annum. It is the intention of the tax framers to complete the revision of the income tax first of all.

BENTLEYVILLE MAN SERIOUSLY HURT UNDER WHEELS OF WAGON

Harry Myers Injured in Runaway—Wheels Just Miss Neck and Head And He Escapes Death

Thrown under the wheels of his wagon when his horse ran away, Harry Myers, aged about 35 years of Bentleyville, received a broken arm and had a narrow escape from possible death the wheels just missing his neck and head. Myers was brought to the Washington hospital for treatment. He was resting comfortably Tuesday night.

The acident occurred late Monday afternoon. Myers was hauling hay between Ellsworth and Cokeburg. His team frightened at a locomotive on the railroad and made a dash. Myers was thrown from the wagon. His arm, which was caught under the wheels was broken in two places.

WHOLE FAMILY WOULD ENLIST

Three Sons in Navy, Monongahela Father Weeps When Refused

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER READY

Three months ago, when the nation was first stirred by rumors of war, Charles A. Royce of Monongahela took his three sons to the Pittsburg Navy Recruiting Station. He waited anxiously until the boys passed the required examinations and watched them proudly as, with uplifted hands they took the oath of allegiance to the United States.

The boys, William, aged 22, Walter, aged 20, and John aged 18, left that night for the training station at Newport. Frequent letters were received at the lonely Monongahela home. Tuesday word arrived that they had been assigned to active service. William and John on the Delaware and Walter on the Seattle. By the same mail each of the boys sent their first three months' pay to their mother.

News that his sons were serving on the grey battleships that are guarding American ideals on the high sea stirred Mr. Royce to a still greater sacrifice, and Tuesday afternoon, in spite of his 45 years, he himself applied for enlistment in the Navy. Tears came to his eyes when Lieut. J. B. Oldendorf in Pittsburg told him that on account of his age he could not be accepted.

"Coudn't you get a waiver or something?" he pleaded. "My wife is well provided for and I want to be with my boys when the fleet gets into action. I can do my bit as well as the young fellows."

Mr. Royce and his sons are not the only patriots in the family. Little Helen Royce, aged 12, who accompanied her father to the office, declared that she wanted to be a Red Cross nurse. "If father enlists," she said, "mother and I are going to help take care of the wounded sailors."

LITERARY CONTEST TO BE HELD ON SATURDAY

Twelve County Schools to be Represented In Contest—Charleroi High School Expected to Send One Representative

The first Washington County Inter-scholastic literary contest will be held in Washington and Jefferson college gymnasium next Saturday evening, and reports received from the high schools taking part make it evident that the event will be of great interest. Twelve schools have reported that they will enter contestants, and all but one so far reported, are schools of the second class—schools with an enrollment of less than 100 pupils. Charleroi High school is the one exception. The exercises will begin at 7:30 o'clock. Everybody is invited. No admission will be charged.

In order to keep the evening program within a reasonable time limit, not more than three contestants will be admitted for each event. When there is a greater number of entries the number will be reduced by an elimination contest to be held Saturday afternoon preceding the regular evening contest.

Charleroi high school will be represented by only one contestant, Miss Felicie Bosson, who will take part in the reading.

WALTER VAUGHAN HERE ARRANGING DETAILS OF HIS CONCERT PROGRAM

Walter Vaughan, tenor of the Third Presbyterian church choir of Pittsburg, who is to give a concert in the high school auditorium tomorrow night, was in Charleroi today arranging details of his program. Mr. Vaughan will be assisted by Miss Norma Bosson of Charleroi, violinist, Miss Sibyl Stitzer of Pittsburg, reader and Miss Bertha Easter, of California, accompanist. The complete program will be announced tomorrow.

MUSICAL AUXILIARY GIVES GOOD PROGRAM

Local Musical Organization Appears In Annual Spring Concert, With Chorus, Quartet, Trio and Solo Numbers—Features Numerous

The annual spring concert of the Musical Auxiliary was given Tuesday evening in the Methodist Episcopal church, a meritorious program being presented to the delectation of a good-sized audience. In the chorus were 25 members, who sang exceedingly well under direction of Mrs. May Barth Kinder, with Miss Bethel Bowman at the piano.

Well balanced in all particulars was the program, which consisted of chorus, quartet, trio and solo numbers, violin selections and readings. In the choruses the Auxiliary evidenced careful preparation. While all selections were well rendered the two which seemed to please most were the old English air, "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," and "Night Winds," Godard-Forman, with solo part by Miss Mary Glunt.

Miss Norma Bosson, violinist, covered herself with glory in her violin renditions, Andante Cantabile, DeBeriot's Concerto, Opus 32, No 2 and "Orientale," Caesar Cui.

Miss Myrtle Clendenon, the reader read two numbers and was recalled, so acceptably did she perform. Especially in her presentation of "The Sign of the Cross" did she excel.

The soprano soloist was Miss Ethel Barth, who was in especially good voice. She sang "Down in the Forest," Donald and "Wake Up," Phillips, then for encore sang "Danny Boy." Never it seemed did Miss Barth do superior work.

Miss Isabella Dorbritz, contralto, was in equally good voice in her rendition of "The Two Roses," Hallet Gilberte, which she did exceedingly well. For encore she sang, "To You," Oley Speaks.

"White Butterfly," a difficult selection from "Garden of Flowers," Denza, was a trio sung with good effect

NATURALIZATION PAPERS MAY NOW BE HANDLED IN COUNTY

Prothonotary Will Look After Business Under New Provision of Law

BUREAU TO HELP WITH WORK

Under an order of court just made, the naturalization of foreigners will be handled hereafter by the prothonotary of this county, and foreign residents of this county desiring to be naturalized will not have to go to Pittsburg, as has been required since 1906. Under the order the court will be in session on the first Monday of October, on the third Monday of January, on the third Monday of April and the last Monday of June of each year, hereafter, for the purpose of taking final action upon any petitions for naturalization that may then be brought before the court, under the provisions of the act of congress approved June 29th, 1906, and its supplements. The first sitting for this purpose will be the last Monday of June next.

The order of the court is acceptable to the Bureau of Naturalization in Pittsburg, and an examiner from that bureau will be present at the time the court sits for naturalization business and examine the applicants for citizenship. His position is similar to a master appointed by the court. He weeds out those, whom he judges not to be entitled to citizenship, and upon his recommendation the court signs the naturalization papers.

The bringing of a branch of the Bureau of Naturalization to this county was accomplished through efforts of county citizens. The court had heretofore left the proposition up to the prothonotary, as to whether or not he wanted to handle the business.

The court consulted with Phronotary A. V. Lewis and he expressed his willingness to handle the business. The prothonotary will at once make ready to receive and properly docket such petitions and applications for naturalization as shall come to him from time to time during the year. These will be disposed of at the time the court sits for naturalization purposes.

Prior to 1906 the naturalization laws were not so strict as at present. The prothonotary prior to that time took care of the naturalization business. A man, wishing to become a United States citizen, came before the prothonotary and took out his first papers, declaring that he wished to become a citizen. In five years he was entitled to receive his naturalization papers. He appeared with two witnesses and there was not much restriction as to whom these papers were granted.

When the United States Bureau of Naturalization was formed the business of naturalization was all taken to Pittsburg. The act, providing for naturalization, as passed by congress in 1906, while allowing the court of common pleas of states to handle the business, did not provide any fee for the prothonotary for the work he would be required to do. The fees all went to the Bureau of Naturalization. Since that time all foreign residents of the county wishing to be naturalized had to go to Pittsburg.

SOMNAMBULIST MEETS INJURY

Chicago Man Hurt When He Goes Through Window of Local Hotel

FALLS 20 FEET TO SIDEWALK

Painful injuries sustained in a fall from a window of the Myford hotel, while walking in his sleep, Lee Fitchett of Chicago is in bed under the doctor's care. Fitchett went through the glass of a window and dropped a distance of 20 feet to the sidewalk. He regained rather than lost consciousness and was able to stagger back to the hotel office, from where he was assisted to his room.

Fitchett arrived Monday night late at the hotel, worn out after a day traveling. He sought rest and repose at once. Hardly had he been in bed ten minutes, according to hotel attaches, when the spirit of somnambulism seized him and he went through the glass.

Medical attention was immediately procured when the man staggered back into the hotel in his night clothes and was put to bed. He was considerably bruised and shaken up and cut somewhat but not internally injured, and will be able to be out in a few days.

The photodrama abounds in intensely realistic and absorbing love scenes. For next Monday, April 30, Manager Sweeney has coming "Her Temptation," a Fox production with Gladys Rockwell in the leading role. The story is a wonderful one of stirring scenes and heart interest attractiveness.

STREET SPRINKLING.

One of the greatest essentials if we are to keep good health this summer is that of clean streets. Now is the time to get plans arranged.

Last summer the state and nation were plagued by a child paralysis epidemic that unmistakably left its mark. That it was brought about by unsanitary conditions was the opinion of the health experts, who already this spring are out with their advice to clean up all premises and to keep them clean.

This is introductory to the suggestion that Charleroi borough arrange before the heat of summer breaks a good system of street sprinkling. During the warm weather streets should be sprinkled as often as once a day—oftener if possible. Dust needs to be allayed and living under sweltering conditions as comfortable as possible. Frequent sprinkling and sweeping may be classed among the necessities.

A PERPLEXING QUESTION

How best to raise revenue to meet wars demands is a problem which the committees on ways and means in both branches of the American Congress are now attempting to solve. The $7,000,000,000 war bill, the largest appropriation ever made by Congress, is about ready to go to the president for his approval. It will of course be signed and become a law immediately. American bankers and American financiers generally have proffered the government all possible help in providing the necessary war fund, but the matter is by no means settled, is positively confusing.

Senator Penrose, the ranking minority member of the senate finance committee, stands hard and fast for a protective policy which he contends will enable the country to meet all demands upon it with the least pressure upon the public purse.

Many of the leading Democrats in both branches of Congress are disposed to agree with him, but they hesitate about an abandonment of the Democratic policy of near free trade legislation and they seem disposed to follow party precedents rather than openly admit the adoption of a long standing policy and principle.

There is, however, no friction between the political leaders. The apparent purpose is to get the very best out of an unfortunate situation and it is certain that they will get together so that sufficient funds will be at hand with the least annoyance to the general public when settlement day comes, as it is certain to come.

It must be gratifying to the Republicans of the nation to realize that President Wilson gets most of his comfort and help from the Republicans in Congress in this national crisis. His own party is divided in his support.

CHARLEROI HAS FEW NERVOUS MEN AND WOMEN

NERVOUSNESS ON THE DECLINE

Still the good work goes on soon there will not be any more tired, nervous people in our city.

This is caused largely by the widespread use of Phosphated Iron, the new tonic and nerve bracer that has sprung into instant popularity with the medical world.

Phosphated Iron will help any run down, nervous condition almost immediately. It will put fresh iron in the blood, the phosphates taking hold of the nerve centers and bracing them up. You will eat better, sleep better and get up in the morning feeling like doing things, you will feel the old time vim and snap of youth surging through your veins, you will tackle the day's work with confidence and a smile.

Science has taught us that when we have enough Iron and Phosphorous in the blood and nerves we are healthy, that almost all conditions of ill health and nervousness are due to the lack of Iron or Phosphorous, Phosphated Iron amount of both.

Use Phosphated Iron one week and you will forget you were ever nervous, tired out and run down, you can feel it taking hold.

Special Notice. To insure your receiving the genuine Phosphated Iron we have put up in Capsules Only. Do not allow dealers to substitute Tablets or Pills.

THEATRE AUDIENCES.

A Sermon For Those Who Arrive Late and Depart Early.

It is one of our most hallowed national customs not to go into a theater until the curtain has risen. If by some stupid blunder we have arrived punctually we smoke a cigarette in the lobby.

So the cunning playwright takes care not to start his story until at least five minutes later. He occupies these five minutes with a colorless scene of some kind just to keep the groundlings amused. In some cases he will begin each act in the same way. It depends on how fashionable his audience is and how thirsty. For a converse reason he must finish his play five minutes before the final curtain falls.

Another of our national customs is to leave the theater the moment Edwin has embraced Angelina, although the author may have reserved a quaint comedy touch or a dramatic surprise for the actual end.

It is no use altering the hour of performance. Begin at midnight if you like, we shall not come until five minutes after. Leave off at 10; we shall go at five minutes before. It is in the blood. The idea that an audience owes any consideration to authors or actors is entirely foreign to it. The very suggestion of it is almost an impertinence.—Louis N. Parker in New York Times.

Altering the Map Without War.

In a world where nations grow and decay, where forces change and populations become cramped it is not possible or desirable to maintain the status quo forever. If peace is to be preserved, nations must learn to accept unfavorable alterations of the map without feeling that they must first be defeated in war or that in yielding they incur a humiliation.—Bertrand Russell in Atlantic Monthly.

No Discrimination.

"I'm afraid father-in-law doesn't care much about me," said the young man. "He finds fault with most everything I do."

"Nonsense!" replied his wife. "You don't know his ways. He is treating you just like one of the family."—Exchange

Allied Republics in War Typified by Female Figures in Artistic Portrayal

Exhibited for the first time since its completion within the past month the painting "Sisters" is a striking representation of the triumvirate of the three great republics of America, France and Russia. The female heads with their adornments typify the three governments: America in her Liberty Cap and laurel wreath; France wearing a helmet surmounted by the Gallic cock, and Russia, wearing a pearl tiara. The painting is by Edwin H. Blashfield, N. A., and is now being shown at the exhibit of the American Artists' Committee of One Hundred for the benefit of Fraternite des Artistes at the galleries of the American Art Association in New York.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church will hold a social in the church Friday evening April 27. Everybody is cordially invited.

GARDEN COLUMN

By National Emergency Food Garden Commission

Chard.

Chard, or Swiss chard, to give its whole name, is an evolution of the beet. It runs to top instead of the root, and thus is often called the silver beet and the spinach beet. It is used only for greens and possesses some of the good points of spinach, cabbage, beet greens and kale, says a bulletin issued recently from the National Emergency Food Garden Commission.

Chard can seldom be bought in any market. Yet those who have a taste for greens in the summer, when spinach and other greens are scarce, should surely plant it in their gardens, as it is one of the best of the greens plants, and a summer producer. It makes a sure-first crop even in the hands of beginners and against adverse weather conditions. Most gardeners who have raised it are enthusiastic about it.

It is another main crop, or whole season crop, that does not fit in with any second for second crops in the same season. It must be planted in the spring, but it begins producing its mature leaves in the early summer and continues to give them to its grower until frost comes. It is a beautiful plant with large light green wrinkled leaves supported by broad, white stems growing directly out of the root crown. The white, blanched root is not eaten.

Plant 2 ounces of chard seed to 199 feet of row, having the row 18 inches apart. When the plants are well up thin them out so that they stand about 6 inches apart. The immature plants thus pulled can be used for greens.

When the crop is ready for use you can either cut the oldest leaves on each plant, leaving the younger ones to grow, or you can cut off the entire top, taking care not to injure the root crown where the leaves sprout, and the plant will continue to produce. The thick stalks of the leaves can be cooked and served like asparagus.

WHEN EVERY MOVE HURTS

Lame every morning, achy and stiff all day, worse when it's damp or chilly? Suspect your kidneys and try the remedy your neighbors use.

Fred Clase, 424 Fourth St., Donora, Pa., says: "I had pains in my back and I often felt tired. Mornings I felt very lame and unable to move without misery. When I stooped over I could hardly straighten up again on account of a kink catching me in my side. The kidney secretions passed too frequently and some nights I had to get up three or four times. A burning sensation accompanied the passages and I noticed sediment in the secretions. Doan's Kidney Pills benefited me. Now, whenever a cold settles on my kidneys, a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills put me in good shape again."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Clase uses. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. 45

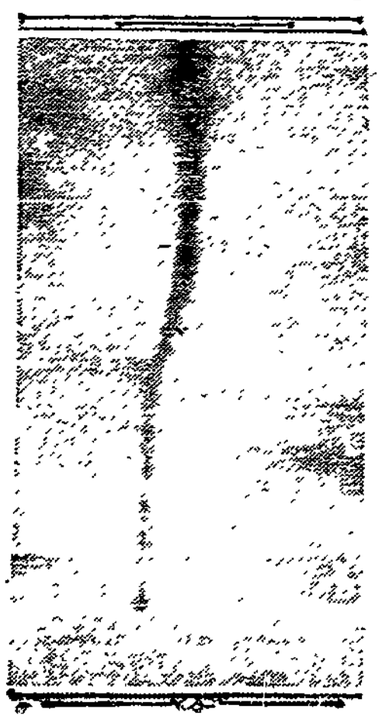
Story of Destruction of Mighty Zeppelin Vividly Told in Pictures Taken from French Aeroplane



Few European battles are more vividly described than in these two pictures, both taken from a French aeroplane which vanquished a great zeppelin. The first scene is above the clouds over Compiegne, France, after the battle. The zeppelin is seen falling to earth enveloped in flame. The bird's-eye view of the city shows the debris in a garden

On the contrary, it will add to The Post's present acknowledged NEWS SUPERIORITY the services of a special representative of exceptional ability and reputation in every place on the face of the globe where big events are occurring, whether in war, in business, or in politics.

With the entrance of the United States into the great World War, and with current events of such vast import as to make each moment in which you are living an epoch, THINK what it means to have a newspaper such as THE POST bring all this to you each day.
